

EXPERIENCE

Guided by his personal motto, "Helping People Prosper," and a deep faith that anchors every accomplishment, stan stouder has dominated Southwest Florida's real estate landscape since 1981 as a premier broker, investor, developer, and corporate site selector. He commands a substantial personal portfolio of income-producing properties, drives high return developments from vision to reality, and executes high-stakes brokerage transactions with precision. Holding a BS in Real Estate from Indiana University, the elite CCIM designation, and a Master Practitioner status in Neuro-Linguistic Programming, Stan delivers unparalleled results rooted in integrity and service.

Co-founder of CB Richard Ellis offices in Lee, Collier, and Charlotte counties (1998 - 2012), he launched CRE Consultants in 2012 to spearhead strategic brokerage, investment advisory, development, leasing, and management across industrial, office, retail, multi-family, and land assets. A perennial top producer, stan forms powerhouse investment syndicates, engineers innovative solutions for complex deals, and advises lenders and institutions on mission-critical assignments. He is a nationally recognized speaker, award winning author, and thought leader on real estate trends.
